Coravin Wines By The Glass

The Coravin wine preservation system allows wine to be poured without removing the cork!

When wine is poured the system replaces the wine with an inert gas preventing any oxygen from entering the bottle and therefore the remaining wine is preserved in its original condition.

This allows us to offer wines by the glass which would normally only be available by the bottle.

The following wines are available in a 125ml sample

White

125ml

'Elodie' Chenin Blanc (Bin 32)

Gabriëlskloof, Swartland, South Africa, 2018, 13.0% £10.50

This wine is light golden in colour with subtle aromas of apricot and white peach coupled with layers of almond, orange blossom and herbs. The palate is full-bodied with great natural acidity and freshness which is typical of old vine Chenin.

Meerlust Chardonnay (Bin 27)

Stellenbosch, South Africa, 2016, 13.0% £10.50

On the palate the wine is medium bodied and linear but retains generous focused citrus fruit flavours with sleek, balanced and crisp acidity. The wine remains vivacious and fresh on the finish with clean citrus fruit and stony minerality. The wine has a long, very pleasant lingering finish.

Polish Hill Riesling (Bin 40)

Grosset, Clare Valley, 2017, 12.7% £12.00

Jeffrey Grosset established his winery in 1981 in the historic township of Auburn, this iconic single site wine is what many consider to be the ultimate Clare Valley Riesling. An intense nose which combines mineral and tropical. The palate has notes of lime blossom, pineapple and wet slate.

Chablis Grand Cru 'Les Clos' (Bin 12)

Domaine de L'Enclos, Burgundy, 2018, 14.0% £14.50

This is one of the most exciting new domaines to have emerged from Chablis in the past decade. The Grand Cru 'Les Clos' is complex with hints of minerality on the nose, the flavours on the palate are extremely concentrated with a superb balance.

Red

125ml

'Sexy Beast' Cabernet Sauvignon (Bin 91)

Two Hands, Two Hands, McLaren Vale, 2017, 13.6% £10.50

A deep and lush ruby colour, with an alluring nose of rich fruit, and subtle touches of violet, smoke, and leafy herbs. Fulsome yet elegant, the tannins are smooth and the palate tightly structured.

Henschke Henry's Seven (Bin 92)

Barossa Valley, Australia, 2017, 14.5% £11.50

73% Syrah/Shiraz, 17% Grenache/Garnacha, 5% Mataro, 5% Viognier
Dark plum, berry compote, rhubarb and raspberry flavours lead to a peppery mid-palate of vibrant red berry acidity and fine-grained tannins, finishing with lingering flavours of mulberry and black pepper.

Meerlust Rubicon (Bin 80)

Stellenbosch, South Africa, 2013, 14.0% £12.00

Very deep, youthful colour, and intense almost purple hue. The palate is full bodied, structured by beautifully sleek, ripe tannins which restrain the vibrant dark fruit typical of this vintage. The wine lingers on the palate with creamy fruit mouthfilling tannins.

Nuits-Saint-Georges (Bin 70)

Jean-Claude Boisset, Burgandy, France, 2016, 12.5% £15.00

A bright ruby colour in the glass with aromas of crunchy red cherry, sweet spice and subtle smoky notes. On the palate the flavours are well concentrated, with silky tannins and bright acidity giving the wine great structure and length.

Sparkling Wines

"Cornwall" Brut (Bin 1)

(Available by the glass)

Camel Valey, Cornwall, England, 2015, 12.5%

£45.00

November 2019 saw Scott & Steph visit one of the UK's top rated vineyards, first planted by Bob & Annie back in 1989. A fresh and fruity fizz, perfect for all celebrations. With English hedgerow scents and a touch of honey on the palate.

Pinot Noir Rose Brut (Bin 2)

(Available by the glass)

Camel Valey, Cornwall, England, 2017, 12.5%

£48.00

100% Pinot Noir grapes. Characteristic aromas of wild strawberries and raspberries, very well balanced with a pure, refreshing finish. Mouth-wateringly good and one of Steph's favourites.

Pelorus (Bin 3)

Cloudy Bay, Marlborough, New Zealand, NV, 12.5%

£50.00

Designed as an aperitif but has enough depth to stand up to many dishes. The deliciously crisp palate displays toasty, creamy complexity, enhanced by a lingering nutty finish.

Britagne Brut (Bin 4)

Exton Park, Hampshire, England, NV, 11.5%

£48.00

Planted across some 55 acres of Hampshire's South Downs, a lovely minerality in the mouth indicates a good, balanced structure, with an intense backbone and very long finish with some white pepper notes

Champagne Brut (Bin 5)

Laurent-Perrier, Champagne, France, NV, 12.0%

£70.00

Delicate yet complex, fresh and well-balanced with hints of citrus and white fruits. The fruit progressively emerges to reveal a finely balanced champagne displaying great length on the finish

Cuvée Rosé Brut (Bin 6)

Laurent-Perrier, Champagne, France, NV, 12.0%

£95.00

Bright, salmon-pink in colour it has hints of soft red fruits, such as strawberries, red-currants, raspberries and black cherries.

Moscato (Bin 7)

(Available by the glass)

Innocent Bystander, Yarra Valley, Australia, 2018, 5.5%

£35.00

Slightly sparkling, to be drunk with light, chocolatey or fruit-based puds or just as a wicked, retro aperitif! If it was any fresher you'd slap it! say the fun-minded folks at Innocent Bystander and we're inclined to agree following our vineyard visit in 2016.

White Wines

France

Mâcon-Villages (Bin 10)

Joseph Drouhin, Burgundy, 2016, 13.0%

£42.00

Made from Chardonnay grapes and aged in stainless steel for up to 8 months. The colour of the wine is bright, the nose is floral and fruity. Very straightforward and direct on the palate, as if biting into a grape. Fresh and light.

Chablis (Bin 11)

Domaine Du Colombier, Burgundy, 2016, 12.5%

£46.00

The Domaine du Colombier has been a family property since 1887, handed down over several generations. Exclusively planted with Chardonnay vines the wine produced is an elegant dry white with aromas of ripe fruit and a full body giving a classic finish.

Chablis Grand Cru 'Les Clos' (Bin 12)

(Available by the glass)

Domaine de L'Enclos, Burgundy, 2018, 14.0%

£85.00

This is one of the most exciting new domaines to have emerged from Chablis in the past decade. The Grand Cru 'Les Clos' is complex with hints of minerality on the nose, the flavours on the palate are extremely concentrated with a superb balance.

Pouilly-Fuissé (Bin 13)

Château de Chaintré, Burgundy, 2018, 13.0%

£50.00

This wine is a bright gold colour in the glass with aromas of ripe, tropical fruit and notes of brioche. The palate is smooth and balanced with hints of fresh pear and lemon.

Chassagne-Montrachet 1er Cru (Bin 14)

Domaine Borgeot, Burgandy, 2018, 13.5%

£85.00

Domaine Borgeot is situated in the village of Rémigny in the Côte de Beaune and is now run by fourth generation brothers Laurent and Pascal Borgeot. This is a creamy chardonnay where smoky notes underpin the fruit and add to the structure and finish.

France (continued)

Sancerre (Bin 15)

Domaine Nicolas Girard, Loire Valley, 2018, 13.0% £44.00

Nicolas Girard has two hectares from which he makes Sancerre in his small winery. Pale lemon in colour, this top quality Sancerre is fresh and aromatic, with citrus fruit, hay and nettles on the nose. Its richly textured palate and full body are balanced by an attractive minerality and a refreshing acidity.

Pouilly-Fumé (Bin 16)

Domaine Bonnard, Loire Valley, 2017, 13.5% £44.00

A fantastic example of this popular varietal from a family owned vineyard in the heart of Sancerre. Fresh, dry white wine with classic Sauvignon Blanc characteristics of citrus and gooseberry flavours.

Riesling Reserve (Bin 17)

(Available by the glass)

Gustave Lorentz, Alsace, 2017, 12.5%

£40.00

The Gustave Lorentz Riesling Reserve has a pale yellow color, with an expressive and refined nose filled with citrus and white flower aromas. It has a lively attack, refreshing acidity, great structure and a clean, dry finish. A classic Alsace Riesling.

Gewurztraminer Reserve (Bin 18)

Cave de Hunawihr, Haut-Rhin, Alsace, 2018, 12.5% £36.00

The Gewurztraminer is picked at optimum ripeness, giving the final wine layered flavours of rose petals, lychee, mango. The wine is full-bodied yet refreshing with crisp acidity, and a rose-petal perfume on the finish.

Germany

Riesling (Bin 19)

Axel Pauly, Mosel, 2017, 11.0%

£42.00

Alex Pauly is one of the dynamic young stars of German wine. The nose has fresh hay aromas along with yellow and exotic fruits. The palate is fresh and medium-bodied, with a striking mineral character and clear tropical fruit notes before the long finish.

Austria

Gruner Veltliner (Bin 20)

Lenz Moser, Niederösterreich, 2017, 12.5%

£38.00

Gruner Veltliner, Austria's most widely cultivated varietal. It is a young light wine with a fresh and spicy nose. The palate is spicy with a fruity body featuring notes of mineral and pear.

Italy

Gavi Di Gavi (Bin 21)

Rolona, Castellari Bergaglio, Gavi, 2016, 12.5%

£44.00

Admirable balance and easy drinking are Rolona's main personality traits. The bouquet is rich and long lingering, offering crisp, refreshing aromas of pear and green apple, dried hay, plus an intriguing hint of citrus and earthy mineral.

Pinot Grigio (Bin 22)

(Available by the glass)

`Terrapieno` Alpha Zeta, Veneto, 2019, 12.5%

£32.00

This is a single vineyard Pinot Grigio with great intensity and balance. It has lifted aromas of pear and bread crust, classic for Pinot Grigio from this region. The nose gives way to lovely weight and a silky texture on the palate, with hints of dried herbs. The wine finishes dry with a zesty acidity and a saline minerality on the finish.

Soave Classico (Bin 23)

Pieropan, Calvarino, Veneto, 2017, 12.5%

£45.00

The 'Calvarino' is pale straw yellow in colour, with youthful hues turning golden with age. Fresh, floral aromas with elderflower, lemon and cherry. The palate is dry, well balanced and elegant, with tremendous length and finesse.

Spain

Moscatel/Chardonnay (Bin 24)

Goru El Blanco, Ego Bodegas, Jumilla, 2017, 13.5% £32.00

Shiny golden yellow, ample ripe fruit aroma with typical floral notes of Moscatel grapes. Long, greasy in the mouth, leaves a pleasant white grape end of taste.

Portugal

Arinto/Verdelho (Bin 25)

(Available by the glass)

Mar De Lisboa, Chocapalha, Lisboa, 2017, 13.0% £30.00

A beautifully aromatic wine, with a fruit skin texture to go with the creamier pear and pink grapefruit character. The wine is very fresh, finishing with lemon zest acidity.

England

Pinot Blanc (Bin 26)

Stopham Estate, West Sussex, 2015, 11.5% £44.00

Stopham Estate's Pinot Blanc is a lovely pale lemon colour in the glass with fresh perfumes of pear. On the palate, pink grapefruit, melon and sweet fennel combine with a zippy acidity. Well balanced, the wine has a succulent sweetness which lasts well into the lengthy finish.

South Africa

Chardonnay (Bin 27)

(Available by the glass)

Meerlust, Stellenbosch, 2016, 13.0%

£54.00

Complex, appealing nose with pear, citrus and floral notes developing into lemon cream, oatmeal and marzipan richness. On the palate the wine is medium bodied and linear but retains generous focused citrus fruit flavours with sleek, balanced and crisp acidity. The wine remains vivacious and fresh on the finish with clean citrus fruit and stony minerality. The wine has a long, very pleasant lingering finish.

Chenin Blanc (Bin 28)

Bush Vines, Mooiplaas, Stellenbosch, 2018, 13.5%

£34.00

Most vines are trained along rows of wire but these grapes are from bush vines which are allowed to grow naturally. The result is a lovely straw colour, nose decidedly tropical with lychee / mango / and summer melon flavours, good weight and balance on the palate, lovely minerality.

SSV (Bin 29)

Lomond, Cape Agulhas, 2016, 13.0%

£32.00

On the slopes of the Ben Lomond mountain in the Uilenkraal Valley, the vineyards are planted on as many as 18 different soil types, which appear naturally in small pockets along the slopes and produce intriguingly complex wines with flavour profiles that differ markedly from one block to the next.

A blend of Sauvignon/Semillion/Viognier. Brilliantly clear with a green edge, tropical aromas of gooseberry and passionfruit with floral and mineral hints. Crisp and fresh with a flinty finish.

Sauvignon Blanc (Bin 30)

Lomond, Cape Agulhas, 2017, 14.0%

£30.00

The terroir, climate and location of Lomond all combine to create superb single-vineyard wines from individual vineyard blocks. Fresh and medium-bodied with a delicate minerality, while the green and tropical fruit flavours carry through onto the palate.

Viognier (Bin 31)

Fairview, Paarl, 2018, 13.5%

£34.00

Vines for this Viognier are grown on decomposed granite soils, giving the wine powerful stone fruit and honeysuckle aromas, followed by a full bodied palate with spice and lingering fruit flavours.

Chenin Blanc (Bin 32)

(Available by the glass)

`Elodie`, Gabriëlskloof, Swartland, 2018, 13.0%

£48.00

The Elodie is made from old vine (over 35 years old) dry-farmed Chenin Blanc grown in the Swartland. This wine is light golden in colour with subtle aromas of apricot and white peach coupled with layers of almond, orange blossom and herbs. The palate is full-bodied with great natural acidity and freshness which is typical of old vine Chenin.

Chenin Blanc (Bin 33)

(Available by the glass)

Spice Route, Swartland, 2017, 14.0%

£40.00

Charles Back was a pioneer in the Swartland when he started Spice Route in 1998. Today, the region is the source of many of South Africa's outstanding wines. This Chenin Blanc has a classic lemon-lime character with a characteristic waxy, almost honeyed note on the palate and a lime twist on the finish.

New Zealand

Sauvignon Blanc (Bin 34)

Cloudy Bay, Marlborough, 2018, 13.0%

£58.00

The cult classic from Marlborough and one of the first stops on Scott & Steph's New Zealand tour in 2011. A wine full of fresh herbal aromas and layers of ripe guava and tropical fruit. Gooseberries and passion fruit on the medium-full body; the palate is succulent and crisp with a long flavoursome finish.

Gewurztraminer (Bin 35)

Lawsons Dry Hills, Marlborough, 2017, 14.0%

£36.00

From the exceptional 2017 vintage and made in an off-dry style. This wine has lifted lychee and rose petal aromas, complemented by subtle spicy notes, the palate is wonderfully rich with great intensity and is finely balanced.

Sauvignon Blanc (Bin 36)

(Available by the glass)

Framingham, Marlborough, 2018, 12.5%

£36.00

This Sauvignon Blanc has smoky aromatics, with flint, bitter lemon citrus, grapefruit and tropical hints. The palate is rich, slightly chewy, with good mouthfeel, texture and harmony. Flavours of yellow citrus, currant, papaya and sweet herbs carry through the finish.

Wild Sauvignon (Bin 37)

Greywacke, Marlborough, 2017, 13.5%

£48.00

This Sauvignon Blanc from Kevin Judd is intensely complex, thanks to fermentation with wild yeasts and ageing in old French oak barriques. Aromas of summer fruit and pastry - peaches, nectarines, lime meringue pie and apple custard, all with a hint of dill and wood smoke. The palate is full with flavours of citrus and stone fruit, crisp acidity and notes of flint on the long, dry finish.

Old Vine Riesling (Bin 38)

Framingham, Marlborough, 2017, 13.0%

£45.00

A deliciously balanced "old-world" style, the nose has concentrated lime fruit with hints of honeysuckle and stony minerality. Medium to full bodied, the palate is intense with rich, balanced flavours of mandarin and ripe apple. Layered and complex, citrus fruits and wet slate perfumes continue throughout. Crisp, lively Riesling acidity carries through to the dry, long finish.

Australia

Semillon (Bin 39)

“Watervale”, Mount Horrocks, Clare Valley, 2016, 13.5% £45.00

Mount Horrocks Semillon is from a low yielding, single vineyard of unirrigated vines in Watervale. This Semillon is light white gold in colour, the nose has perfumes of garden herbs and apple over lightly toasty, spiced oak. Citrus peel and green apple, baked pear and hazelnut praline, with a creamy texture and a long, elegant dry finish.

Riesling (Bin 40)

(Available by the glass)

Polish Hill, Grosset, Clare Valley, 2017, 12.7%

£60.00

Jeffrey Grosset established his winery in 1981 in the historic township of Auburn, Clare Valley, 100 kilometres north of Adelaide. Jeff is best known for his Rieslings which have shown a consistency of style and quality, making this one of Australia’s greatest wineries. The palate has a richness and freshness only found in great wine: notes of lime blossom, pineapple and wet slate. Youthful and multi-dimensional.

Chardonnay (Bin 41)

Tolpuddle, Coal River, Tasmania, 2018, 13.0%

£68.00

Scott & Steph’s 2018 wine tour took us to Tasmania including the Coal River Valley. The Tolpuddle Vineyard was purchased by Michael Hill Smith MW and Martin Shaw in 2011, it has since established a reputation for growing exceptional quality grapes. The Chardonnay is a wine of finesse and poise, with delicate flavours of lime, green apple peel and a savoury biscuit note .

Sauvignon Blanc (Bin 42)

Shaw + Smith, Adelaide Hills, 2019, 12.5%

£40.00

The 30th vintage of this wine that has become known as the benchmark for Australian Sauvignon Blanc. The style has remained fresh, aromatic, and pure with distinct pink grapefruit flavour profile, mid-palate weight and texture and a fine acidity.

USA

Dry Riesling (Bin 43)

Fox Run, Finger Lakes, New York, 2014, 11.5% £46.00

Aromas of slate, lime peel and tree fruits identify this as a classic Finger Lakes Riesling. There's lots of flavor intensity here, with bold acidity.

Chardonnay (Bin 44)

Hayes Ranch, California, 2016, 13.5% £34.00

Golden yellow in color, Hayes Ranch Chardonnay, invites you in with its vanilla and brown sugar aromatics. Hints of oak and cinnamon kissed green apple flavors help create a very smooth wine with a soft fruity finish.

Chile

Chardonnay (Bin 45)

Santa Ema Reserve, Maipo Valley, 2017, 12.5% £30.00

Vines are planted in the heart of the valley, very close to the Maipo River, where they are influenced by rocky soils and the winds that blow down from the Andes. A bright golden color and pleasant aromas of fresh fruits, ripe bananas and pineapples. In the mouth, it is a young wine, fruity, well balanced and with a refreshing finish.

Argentina

Torrontes (Bin 46)

Crios, Salta and Uco Valley, 2018, 14.0% £36.00

Susan Balbo was first female winemaker in Argentina. She was a pioneer in Torrontés wines, transforming this traditional grape of Argentina into an emblematic one. Her first harvest broke the rules by creating a premium style of Torrontés distinguished by its elegant notes of white flowers, pear and ripe peach.

Uruguay

Albariño (Bin 47)

Bodega Garzón Reserve, Maldonado, 2019, 13.5% £38.00

Bodega Garzón is a family-owned winery, in November 2018, their pioneering status was recognised with the 'New World Winery of the Year' award. Intense aromas of peach and citrus. The freshness and minerality on the palate is superb, supported by a remarkable acidity with a juicy fruit on the crisp finish.

Rose Wines

South Africa

Rosebud (Bin 50)

(Available by the glass)

Gabriëlskloof, Bot River, 2019, 12.5%

£32.00

50% Syrah/Shiraz, 50% Viognier. Beautifully aromatic, the 'Rosebud' balances floral notes with fruity aromas of papaya, strawberry and watermelon. The palate is light-bodied with a refreshing acidity.

USA

Zinfandel Rose (Bin 51)

Borrego Springs, California, NV, 10.5%

£32.00

This is a light medium sweet rose from the Napa valley. A fresh, lively wine with a refreshing crisp finish of strawberries and melon. Easy drinking and perfect for a warm sunny evening.

France

Chemin De Provence Rose (Bin 52)

Foncalieu, Coteaux d'Aix en Provence, 2018, 12.0%

£36.00

Chemin de Provence is a pale rosé by design. On the nose, red fruits like raspberries and strawberries, with more exotic fruits like guava in the background. The palate is dry, fresh and clean, emphasizing ripe strawberries and perfectly balanced acidity.

Australia

Moscato (Bin 7)

(Available by the glass)

Innocent Bystander, Yarra Valley, Australia, 2018, 5.5%

£35.00

Slightly sparkling, to be drunk with light, chocolatey or fruit-based puds or just as a wicked, retro aperitif! If it was any fresher you'd slap it!' say the fun-minded folks at Innocent Bystander and we're very inclined to agree following our vineyard visit in 2016.

Red Wines

France

Cabernet Sauvignon (Bin 60) (Available by the glass)

Domaine Galetis, Languedoc, 2016, 12.5% £30.00

A real classic Cabernet Sauvignon. Full of blackcurrant jam on both the nose and palate with a touch of cedary oak adding some depth.

Saint-Emilion (Grand Cru) (Bin 61)

Croix Canon, Bordeaux, 2012, 14.0% £70.00

An elegant, attractive blend of 75% Merlot and 25% Cabernet Franc. Exhibiting plenty of raspberry, blueberry and black cherry fruit as well as some crushed rock/chalky minerality and a floral note, this very impressive Canon is structured and precise.

Beaujolais-Villages (Bin 62)

Château de la Pierre, Beaujolais, 2017, 12.5% £34.00

The vines – planted at an average altitude of 350 metres – are exclusively Gamay Noir. Aged on the lees in stainless steel vats to preserve the intense fruit character. You might taste ripe cherries and blueberries and a touch of pepper and mineral bite on the finish. A rounded, fruit-driven red that would match well with duck.

Fleurie (Bin 63)

Henry Fessy, Beaujolais, 2016, 13.0% £42.00

Henry Fessy are one of the most significant producers of fine wines in the Beaujolais region. Lusciously soft and light (light enough to accompany fish dishes) this wonderful example of Fleurie displays attractive raspberry fruit. The wine has a very pleasant bouquet of red fruits mixed with floral tones. In the mouth the red fruit is rich and concentrated, backed with a persistent finish.

Brouilly (Bin 64)

Château de Pierreux, Beaujolais, 2018, 13.5% £44.00

It is one of the finest domaines in the Beaujolais region, with a magnificent château and winery built during the Renaissance. This wine is very aromatic, full of morello cherries, blackcurrants and sweet spices. The palate is complex, revealing flavours of wild strawberry and violet with medium body and soft tannins.

Pinot Noir (Bin 65)

(Available by the glass)

Louis Latour, Provence, 2016, 13.5% £36.00

Domaine de Valmoissine from the Coteaux du Verdon, has a ruby color and a complex nose with cocoa and ripe fruits from south of France, such as strawberry. The mouth is ample and round with silky tannins and hints of forest floor.

France (continued)

Châteauneuf-Du-Pape (Bin 66)

Vignoble Abeille-Fabre, Rhône, 2014, 14.5%

£54.00

Part of the famous Mont-Redon estate, Jean Abeille's vineyard occupies a total of 100 hectares. Superbly balanced between youthful fruit and warm, oaky complexity. Nose and palate are replete with notes of cinnamon and clove amid the the dense bramble fruit.

Crozes-Hermitage (Bin 67)

Etiene Barret, Rhône, 2016, 12.5%

£44.00

This 100% Syrah wine from the Northern Rhône has a bright, peppery nose with hints of dark chocolate. On the palate, supple fruit flavours, lifted by an appetising black pepper crunch, weave around a delicate web of tannin and minerality.

Côtes Du Rhône (Bin 68)

Parcelles 38, Rhône, 2015, 14.0%

£34.00

The Quiot family have been winemakers since 1748. A blend of Grenache, Syrah and Mourvedre, this is serious Côtes du Rhône, being full flavoured and having the structure to support the ample fruit.

Gevrey-Chambertin (Bin 69)

Louis Latour, Burgundy, 2014, 13.5%

£88.00

Gevrey-Chambertin is one of the finest viticultural villages of the Côte de Nuits. Louis Latours' Gevrey-Chambertin reveals aromas of lightly-wooded blackcurrant. On the palate blackcurrant and liquorice blend beautifully and are accompanied by a slight peppery finish, enhanced by silky tannins.

Nuits-Saint-Georges (Bin 70)

(Available by the glass)

Jean-Claude Boisset, Burgundy, 2016, 12.5%

£84.00

Making wines from 'lieu-dits' or tiny plots of vines, is something which accounts for the limited production. This wine comes from the single site 'Coteau des Bois' vineyard. A bright ruby coloured Pinot Noir in the glass with aromas of crunchy red cherry, sweet spice and subtle smoky notes. On the palate the flavours are well concentrated, with silky tannins and bright acidity giving the wine great structure and length.

Aloxe-Corton 1er Cru (Bin 71)

Domaine Tollot-Beaut, Burgundy, 2017, 12.5%

£90.00

The fifth generation of the family now produces this 100% Pinot Noir from hand harvested grapes of the 'Les Fournières' vineyard. This wine has expressive aromas of wild strawberry and blackberry fruit. On the palate, it displays firm, ripe tannins, bright notes of black fruit with a touch of clove spice lifted by fresh acidity. The finish is long and layered.

Italy

Barbera d'Asti (Bin 72)

Montebruna, Piedmont, 2015, 14.5%

£52.00

Ruby red-violet. A striking aroma of ripe cherries and red berries. It is deep, full and harmonious in the mouth, with a long finish that maintains lasting taste and finishes with almond. The chewy palate offers juicy sour cherry, ground pepper and licorice alongside racy acidity and round tannins.

Amarone (Bin 73)

Villa Molino, Valpolicella, 2013, 15.0%

£58.00

The name Valpolicella means "Valley of Many Cellars" because there are so many in the region which is situated North West of Verona. Bright red colour, subtly perfumed with pleasing aromas of bitter cherry and violet. The palate is soft and extremely fruity but it also has a serious side to it too. It has lovely texture to complement the fruit and a balancing acidity

Spain

Rioja Crianza (Bin 74)

Viña Amate, Rioja, 2016, 14.0%

£32.00

After spending 12 months in oak barrel and another 12 months in bottle before release, this Rioja, made from Tempranillo and Garnacha grapes, has a powerful nose with layers of black and red fruits, leading to a fruit driven palate with mineral and gentle oaky notes on the finish.

Blend (Bin 75)

Finca Malaveina, Empordà, 2015, 15.0%

£50.00

Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Garnatxa, Syrah and Cabernet Franc.

Despite its young age, Malaveina has already gone from being a promising estate to a reality. This vineyard has already produced wines of great personality, such as the successful red which bears its name: the Perelada Finca Malaveina. The palate is elegant, sweet, creamy and very structured. Well-polished tannins. Presence of fruit with balsamic and chocolates. Very balanced, persistent and long aftertaste.

Monstarell/Syrah/Cabernet (Bin 76)

Goru 38 Barrels, Ego Bodegas, Jumilla, 2013, 14.5%

£44.00

A complex, mature and structured wine. A great blend of the ripe black fruit aromas with the toasted and smoked notes of the ageing. An intense but extremely elegant wine.

Portugal

Syrah (Bin 77)

Mar Da Palha, Lisboa, 2011, 14.0%

£30.00

50% Syrah, 30% Touriga Nacional, 20% Touriga Franca. A fabulous blend of the Syrah and the indigenous Touriga Nacional varietal. The Syrah providing weight, power and intensity of dark fruit and the Touriga Nacional providing elegance and finesse to the blend.

Touriga Nacional (Bin 78)

Ch by Chocapalha, Lisboa, 2013, 14.0%

£60.00

100% Touriga Nacional, CH by Chocapalha is an homage to the Swiss origins of the Tavares da Silva family. Bold, dark fruit aromas on the nose with subtle nuances of leather and violet. The structured palate is supported by firm tannins and enticing flavors of black currant and raspberry followed by a remarkable finish.

South Africa

Cabernet Sauvignon (Bin 79)

Signal Rock, DeWaal, Stellenbosch, 2008, 14.5%

£44.00

A beautiful Cabernet Sauvignon based blend with cassis, black fruit and raspberry flavours, with a long and lingering finish.

Rubicon (Bin 80)

(Available by the glass)

Meerlust, Stellenbosch, 2013, 14.0%

£65.00

The 2013 Rubicon classic expression of this iconic Cape wine. Very deep, youthful colour, and intense almost purple hue. The palate is full bodied, structured by beautifully sleek, ripe tannins which restrain the vibrant dark fruit typical of this vintage. The wine lingers on the palate with creamy fruit mouthfilling tannins.

Conebush Syrah (Bin 81)

Lomond, Cape Agulhas, 2014, 14.0%

£52.00

Lomond Wine estate is located in Cape Agulhas in the most southerly tip of Africa. The grapes for this wine come from one of their best plots and are handpicked and hand sorted. It is a full bodied yet elegant wine with black and red fruit flavours, cherries, plums, spicy white pepper, a hint of cloves and oakly spice. Pair with rich meaty dishes.

Merlot (Bin 82)

(Available by the glass)

Lomond, Cape Agulhas, 2016, 14.0%

£40.00

A full-bodied wine with red berry and plum flavours enhanced by a trace of smokiness. A succulent palate of fruity sweetness and soft, round tannins balanced with oak spice, making this an easily-accessible wine.

SMV (Bin 83)

Lomond, Cape Agulhas, 2016, 14.5%

£42.00

A Rhône-inspired blend consisting of 72% Shiraz, 12% Mourvèdre and 6% Viognier. Sweet, juicy red fruit, black pepper, clove with floral flavors on the nose. The palate is rich with intense flavors of pepper and spice, with soft, silky tannins.

New Zealand

Pinot Noir (Bin 84)

Sacred Hill, Marlborough, 2017, 13.5%

£32.00

Aromas of cherry and ripe raspberry are accompanied by wild thyme, baked sage, floral and savoury characters. The palate entry is weighty with a seamless flow, finishing with a velvety tannin texture.

Pinot Noir (Bin 85)

Cloudy Bay, Marlborough, 2015, 13.5%

£64.00

100% Pinot Noir from carefully selected vines in the Southern Wairau Valley of Marlborough. This 27th release of their legendary Pinot Noir is layered with bright red fruit, heady spice and a silky structure.

Blend (Bin 86)

Craggy Range Te Kahu, Gimblett Gravels

Hawke's Bay, 2013, 13.5%

£44.00

This blend (73% Merlot, 13% Malbec, 12% Cabernet Sauvignon, 2% Cabernet Franc) provides a modern and unique take on a classic Bordeaux assemblage. Vibrant deep garnet colour. Enticing aromas of dark plums and cassis meld with those of nutmeg, tobacco and sandalwood in a classically composed nose. The palate is rich and yet quietly composed, with layers of flavour and tannin linked by fine acidity and the refined dusty tannins of the gravels. Finishes dry and long.

Australia

Pinot Noir (Bin 87)

Innocent Bystander, Yarra Valley, 2017, 13.5%

£44.00

Innocent Bystander Pinot Noir was one of our favourites when we visited the Yarra back in 2016. Aromas of cherries, Campari, raspberries, fennel seeds with hints of bergamot tea and orange zest. Lively on the palate with fresh, ripe raspberries with a beetroot earthiness. A wine of purity, texture and slippery tannins.

Shiraz (Bin 88)

Woodstock, McLaren Vale, 2012, 15.0%

£42.00

Our last visit to Woodstock Estate, which lies between McLaren Flat and Blewitt Springs, east of the town of McLaren Vale was in 2016. Not only do they have a fantastic cellar door & restaurant but their wines are stunning too. Decadent richness works in tandem with an opulent texture delivering succulent and powerful flavours of ripe blackberry and liquorice over some dark chocolate, toasty vanillin oak and spice.

Shiraz/ Viognier (Bin 89)

(Available by the glass)

Willunga 100, McLaren Vale, 2018, 14.5%

£40.00

A classic blend of Shiraz (95%) with a touch of Viognier (5%) to add perfume. It has a full and rich palate typical of McLaren Vale. The Shiraz offers dark plum, liquorice and spice while the touch of Viognier brings a vibrant and fragrant lift to the nose. Fine grained tannins give a savoury edge.

Grenache (Bin 90)

The Tithing, Willunga 100, McLaren Vale, 2009, 14.5%

£50.00

The Tithing from Willunga 100 is made only in the best vintages, from small parcels of premium bush vine grapes. "Hundred" and "Tithing" are derived from the Anglo-Saxon terms for units of government within a community. Just as the Tithing was the select part of the Hundred, this wine represents the small selection of the finest old bush vine Grenache, that is hand-picked to ensure exceptional quality. This 'old vine' Grenache has concentrated dark cherry aromas with powerful savoury overtones. It has a long fruit-driven palate with ripe, persistent tannins.

Australia (continued)

Cabernet Sauvignon (Bin 91)

(Available by the glass)

Sexy Beast, Two Hands, McLaren Vale, 2017, 13.6% £55.00

Quality without compromise is central to the Two Hands philosophy. Vinified in traditional open fermenters, the wine is then matured for 14 months in French oak hogsheads. A deep and lush ruby colour, with an alluring nose of rich fruit, and subtle touches of violet, smoke, and leafy herbs. Fulsome yet elegant, the tannins are smooth and the palate tightly structured.

Shiraz Blend (Bin 92)

(Available by the glass)

Henschke Henry's Seven, Barossa, 2017, 14.5% £60.00

73% Syrah/Shiraz, 17% Grenache/Garnacha, 5% Mataro, 5% Viognier

This blend is a tribute to Henry Evans, who planted the first vineyard of seven acres at Keyneton in 1853. Dark plum, berry compote, rhubarb and raspberry flavours lead to a peppery mid-palate of vibrant red berry acidity and fine-grained tannins, finishing with lingering flavours of mulberry and black pepper.

USA

Merlot (Bin 93)

Brotherhood, New York, 2012, 13.0%

£45.00

This ruby red wine is dry and full-bodied, yet soft on the palate. Barrel-aged for at least 6 months, it has complex aromas and flavors of sweet cherries and berries.

Zinfandel (Bin 94)

Wente Beyer Ranch, California, 2015, 13.5%

£40.00

From the USA's oldest family-owned winery comes this rich, peppery zinfandel with hints of juicy raspberry and a luxurious velvety texture. Also known as primitivo and grown across the world, Zinfandel is well suited to the Californian climate.

Chile

Merlot (Bin 95)

Montes Classic Series, Colchagua Valley, 2018, 14.5% £36.00

Montes was established in 1988, with the aim of producing the best wines in Chile from the best regions. Chosen to produce the best examples of each variety, this Chilean Merlot is ripe, full, plummy, layered and full flavoured.

Argentina

Cabernet Sauvignon (Bin 96)

Kaiken Reserve, Mendoza, 2017, 13.0% £36.00

This Cabernet Sauvignon is deep ruby in colour. Fresh red fruits intermingle with aromas of tobacco and spices. On the palate, the wine is soft and vibrant. The long, captivating finish has great complexity and spicy notes, typical of the variety.

Malbec (Bin 97)

(Available by the glass)

Finca Flichman Caballero, Mendoza, 2018, 13.5% £32.00

This wine is ruby red in colour with blue hues. The aroma is perfumed and complex, on the palate, it is concentrated with blackberries, ripe plums and tobacco leaves. Sweet, ripe tannins balance the fruit.

Dessert Wines

Late Harvest Sauvignon Blanc

75ml

Tardío, Maipo Valley, Chile, 2017, 13.0%

£6.00

This wine is made from botrytis affected grapes lovingly aged in oak barrels for 11 months. A deep golden colour, with aromas of honey, dried flowers and sweet spice, the palate has a wonderful marmalade character and an elegant fresh acidity which balances with the richness of the wine. Great all rounder

Trockenbeerenauslese

75ml

Lenz Moser, Osterreich, Austria, 2015, 9.0%

£6.50

Trockenbeerenauslese, literal meaning “dried berries selection” is the highest in sugar content in the Prädikatswein category of the Austrian and German wine classifications. Gorgeous golden yellow. Honey aromas on the nose, lush and ripe fruit, very expressive. Fine, long-lasting finish. Sweet & Sticky

Black Muscat

75ml

Elysium, Quady, California, 2016, 15.0%

£6.50

An amazing sweet and rich RED wine, this has a floral aroma and great concentration. It offers layers of flavor like dried fruit, honey and boysenberry syrup, with food acidity for balance. Great with red fruits or dark chocolate

Yuzu Sake

75ml

Keigetsu, Kōchi Prefecture, Japan, 8.0%

£6.00

Forget any pre-conceptions you have about sake!

This mouth-puckering yet sweet sake is made with the zesty & citrus yuzu fruit. It has an intense mix of lemon, tangerine and lime aromas with a fragrant lift, and a balanced sweetness. Perfect with fresh fruits or citrus

Moscato

125ml

Innocent Bystander, Yarra, Australia, 2016, 5.5%

£6.50

Slightly sparkling, to be drunk with light, chocolatey or fruit-based puds or just as a wicked, retro aperitif! If it was any fresher you'd slap it! say the fun-minded folks at Innocent Bystander and we're inclined to agree following our vineyard visit in 2016. Summer berries or light desserts

Monbazillac

125ml

Chateau Belingard, Dordogne, France, 2014, 12.5%

£6.50

A full nose with honey, candied fruits, quince and the characteristic smells of botrytis. Wine is rich, sweet support by a very fresh acidity which gives the lightness, and the mineral balance. Perfect as an aperitif, with pates, poultry, blue cheeses or also with light desserts

Port

Kopke - The oldest Port wine house

Kopke existed even before there was a Demarcated Region of the Douro.

Established in 1638, the oldest Port wine house built an impeccable reputation based on the highest quality. A leader in the production of Port Tawny Colheita wines, including white port, Kopke has a remarkable range of special category Ports, also producing excellent DOC Douro wines.

10 Year Old Tawny Port

Kopke,

Douro, 20.0%

A wine of high quality, made by blending wines of different harvests to achieve the array of sensory qualities that are typical of these aged tawny Port wines. These wines have each matured in oak casks for varied periods of time, with the average age of all the wines in the blend defining the age on the label. Elegant and complex, it shows aromas of spice, with prevailing notes of dried fruit and elegant hints of wood and honey. Smooth and round on the palate, it shows complexity amidst intense flavours of dried fruit. An excellent finish.

Glass
50ml

£4.50

20 Year Old Tawny Port

Kopke,

Douro, 20.0%

A delicate orange-green colour. Its splendid nose is a complex marriage of dried fruit, spice and notes of fine wood. On the palate, its flavours are rich and concentrated, with a long and velvety finish.

£9.00

30 Year Old Tawny Port

Kopke,

Douro, 20.0%

Amber in colour, with green hues. An intense and complex nose, with prevailing aromas of dried fruit well-balanced with notes of vanilla and honey. On the palate, it is harmonious and concentrated. A superb and enduring finish.

£14.00

2008 Colheita White Port

Kopke,

Douro, 19.5%

A wine of high quality, made from one single harvest. A Colheita wine matures in oak barrels for periods of time that can vary, but never less than 7 years. With a golden colour, this wine reveals delicate honeyed aromas, with hints of candied orange peel, vanilla and dried apricot. A charming wine in the mouth, blending refined aromas of fruit and cask ageing, making this an enticing and intense wine. An elegant and seductive finish, with refreshing acidity that lingers. Served Chilled
