

Coravin Wine System

Using the Coravin wine preservation system allows wine to be poured without removing the cork!

A needle pierces the cork, wine is poured and the system replaces the wine with an inert gas preventing any oxygen from entering the bottle.

Therefore the remaining wine is preserved in its original condition.
This allows us to offer a much larger selection of wines by the glass some of which would normally only be available by the bottle.

Sparkling Wines By The Glass

Nyetimber Classic Cuvée (Bin 1)

Nyetimber Estate, West Sussex, England, NV, 12.0% £15.00

Established in 1988, Nyetimber was the first producer to make English Sparkling Wine exclusively from the 'Champagne varieties': Chardonnay, Pinot Noir and Meunier. Their flagship wine, the Classic Cuvée, was moved to a multi-vintage blend in 2016 and is aged for more than three years on lees. It shows spicy and toasty aromas and a wonderful development on the nose. The palate is elegant and complex, with aromas of honey, almond and pastry.

Pinot Noir Rose Brut (Bin 2)

Camel Valey, Cornwall, England, 2018, 12.5% £14.50

100% Pinot Noir grapes. Characteristic aromas of wild strawberries and raspberries, very well balanced with a pure, refreshing finish. Mouth-wateringly good and one of Steph's favourites.

Black Queen Barossa Sparkling Shiraz (Bin 3)

Peter Lehmann, Barossa, Australia, 2015, 14.0% £14.50

We love finding something a little different and on our visits to the Barossa we came across Sparkling Shiraz. Served chilled this Black Queen Sparkling Shiraz is a unique and indulgent wine using grapes sourced from premium vineyards in the Barossa.

Moscato (Bin 7)

Innocent Bystander, Yarra Valley, 2020, 5.5% £7.00

Something a bit different, slightly sparkling, to be drunk with light, chocolatey or fruit-based puds or just as a wicked, retro aperitif! If it was any fresher you'd slap it!' say the fun-minded folks at Innocent Bystander and we're very inclined to agree following our vineyard visit in 2016.

White Wines By The Glass

125ml 175ml

Alvarinho (Bin 29)

Azevedo, Vinho Verde, 2019, 12.0%

£6.50 £9.00

Clear and bright yellow in colour. On the nose the wine boasts intense aromas of nectarine, apricot and mango along with floral nuances. Full flavoured and rich on the palate but balanced by a lively acidity which carries the ripe fruit flavours onto the lingering finish.

Picpoul de Pinet (Bin 18)

La Croix Gratiot, Languedoc, 2020, 13.0%

£8.00 £11.00

Bright aromas of grapefruit, lemon and white flowers on the nose. The palate has an attractive, rich texture which is well-balanced with racy acidity.

Sauvignon Blanc (Bin 36)

Framingham, Marlborough, 2019, 12.5%

£6.50 £9.00

This Sauvignon Blanc has smoky aromatics, with flint, bitter lemon citrus, grapefruit and tropical hints. The palate is rich, slightly chewy, with good mouthfeel, texture and harmony. Flavours of yellow citrus, currant, papaya and sweet herbs carry through the finish.

Gavi del Comune di Gavi "Indi" (Bin 25)

Tassarolo, Piedmont, 2020, 12.5%

£8.50 £11.50

"Indi" uses indigenous yeasts, is pale straw yellow with a straightforward fragrance of citrus and laurel. The palate is linear and slightly bitter, and the finish is saline. Crunchy acidity and lemon-lime flavors conspire to make it a direct, cleansing wine.

Chenin Blanc (Bin 33)

Spice Route, Swartland, 2019, 14.0%

£7.20 £10.00

Charles Back was a pioneer in the Swartland when he started Spice Route in 1998. Today, the region is the source of many of South Africa's outstanding wines. This Chenin Blanc has a classic lemon-lime character with a characteristic waxy, almost honeyed note on the palate and a lime twist on the finish.

Pinot Grigio (Bin 23)

`Terrapieno` Alpha Zeta, Veneto, 2020, 12.5%

£6.10 £8.50

This is a single vineyard Pinot Grigio with great intensity and balance. It has lifted aromas of pear and bread crust, classic for Pinot Grigio from this region. The nose gives way to lovely weight and a silky texture on the palate, with hints of dried herbs. The wine finishes dry with a zesty acidity and a saline minerality on the finish.

Polish Hill Riesling (Bin 40) 125ml
Grosset, Clare Valley, 2019, 12.7% Coravin
£14.00
Jeffrey Grosset established his winery in 1981 in the historic township of Auburn, this iconic single site wine is what many consider to be the ultimate Clare Valley Riesling. An intense nose which combines mineral and tropical. The palate has notes of lime blossom, pineapple and wet slate.

Chardonnay (Bin 30) Coravin
Leeu Passant, Stellenbosch, 2019, 13.5% £16.50
This Chardonnay comes from a single vineyard planted on the higher slopes of Helderberg Mountain. Located just 4km from the ocean, the site has a pronounced maritime influence, which extends the growing season to produce fruit with incredible intensity of flavour and balancing, zesty acidity. The textured palate has notes of peaches and lemon curd, with a touch of salinity and well-integrated oak character, all balanced by acidity and mineral edge.

Gewurtztraminer (Bin 35) Coravin
Lovat Dry River, Martinborough, 2016, 13.5% £13.00
A deep Gewurtztraminer with a broad and dense palate showing lush aromatics and ripe sweetness. Typical flavours of quince, ginger and florals are enhanced by a small portion of botrytised wine, adding subtlety, depth and complexity.

Rully (Bin 15) Coravin
Maison de Montille, Burgandy, 2020, 13.5% £12.50
The Rully, from a 50-year-old vineyard, is startlingly good: it has excellent depth on the palate, less oak than many from this appellation and great length of white stone fruit on the finish. This wine boasts pronounced aromas of green apple, peach skins and light cut grass scents. The palate is well balanced with a fine midpalate, nicely judged acidity and a touch of salinity on the long finish.

Rose Wine By The Glass

Rosebud (Bin 50) 125ml 175ml
Gabriëlskloof, Bot River, 2020, 12.5% £6.50 £9.00
50% Syrah/Shiraz, 50% Viognier. Beautifully aromatic, the 'Rosebud' balances floral notes with fruity aromas of papaya, strawberry and watermelon. The palate is light-bodied with a refreshing acidity.

Red Wines By The Glass

125ml 175ml

Gamay (Bin 60)

Domaine Joel Delaunay, Loire, 2020, 12.5% £6.50 £9.00

Ruby red in colour, this supple Gamay is dominated by ripe cherries, plums and floral notes. It has a soft texture on the palate and a spicy finish.

Cabernet Sauvignon (Bin 82)

Robertson, Breede River Valley, 2019, 14.0% £7.20 £10.00

This Cabernet Sauvignon displays ripe blackcurrant and dried herb characters on the nose, which are backed up with spicy notes from the oak ageing. The palate is smooth and soft, with beautiful ripe tannins and a long finish.

Malbec (Bin 97)

Finca Flichman Caballero, Mendoza, 2019, 13.5% £8.00 £11.00

This wine is ruby red in colour with blue hues. The aroma is perfumed and complex, on the palate, it is concentrated with blackberries, ripe plums and tobacco leaves. Sweet, ripe tannins balance the fruit.

Pinot Noir (Bin 87)

Innocent Bystander, Yarra Valley, 2019, 13.5% £8.50 £11.50

Innocent Bystander Pinot Noir was one of our favourites when we visited the Yarra back in 2016. Aromas of cherries, Campari, raspberries, fennel seeds with hints of bergamot tea and orange zest. Lively on the palate with fresh, ripe raspberries with a beetroot earthiness. A wine of purity, texture and slippery tannins.

Shiraz/ Viognier (Bin 89)

Willunga 100, McLaren Vale, 2018, 14.5% £7.20 £10.00

A classic blend of Shiraz (95%) with a touch of Viognier (5%) to add perfume. It has a full and rich palate typical of McLaren Vale. The Shiraz offers dark plum, liquorice and spice while the touch of Viognier brings a vibrant and fragrant lift to the nose. Fine grained tannins give a savoury edge.

Merlot (Bin 98)

Monte, Colchagua Valley, 2019, 14.5% £8.00 £11.00

Montes was established in 1988, with the aim of producing the best wines in Chile from the best regions. Chosen to produce the best examples of each variety, this Chilean Merlot is ripe, full, plummy, layered and full flavoured.

125ml

Henschke Henry's Seven (Bin 92)

Coravin

Barossa Valley, Australia, 2018, 14.5%

£11.50

73% Syrah/Shiraz, 17% Grenache/Garnacha, 5% Mataro, 5% Viognier

Dark plum, berry compote, rhubarb and raspberry flavours lead to a peppery mid-palate of vibrant red berry acidity and fine-grained tannins, finishing with lingering flavours of mulberry and black pepper.

Nuits-Saint-Georges (Bin 70)

Coravin

Jean-Claude Boisset, Burgandy, 2016, 12.5%

£16.00

A bright ruby colour in the glass with aromas of crunchy red cherry, sweet spice and subtle smoky notes. On the palate the flavours are well concentrated, with silky tannins and bright acidity giving the wine great structure and length.

Amarone (Bin 73)

Coravin

Corte Giara, Valpolicella, 2018, 15.0%

£13.50

The name Valpolicella means "Valley of Many Cellars" because there are so many in the region which is situated North West of Verona. This wine is intensely perfumed with an inviting ruby red colour. The characteristic hints of black cherry and freshly ground black pepper are followed by subtle herb on the nose. Dry and well-balanced.

Grenache (Bin 80)

Coravin

Momento, Western Cape, 2019, 13.5%

£12.50

Born out of a passion for Mediterranean varieties and old-vine fruit, Momento is a solo project from dynamic winemaker Marelise Niemann. Juicy yet refined, the palate reveals crunchy red berry fruit, bracing acidity and a satisfying grip which lends structure and complexity. The finish is saline and moreish.

Shiraz (Bin 88)

Coravin

Peter Lehmann, Barossa, 2013, 14.5%

£15.00

It is fair to say that we love the "Barossa" having visited in both 2016 and 2019. The region produces a variety of grapes but is best known for Barossa Shiraz of which the wines from Peter Lehmann are amongst the best available.

Stonewell Shiraz, first made in 1987, has one guiding principle: to be Peter Lehmann's best Shiraz of vintage. The name Stonewell was chosen in recognition of the high quality Shiraz grapes being grown around Stonewell Road.

Sparkling Wines

Nyetimber Classic Cuvée (Bin 1)

(Available by the glass)

Nyetimber Estate, West Sussex, England, NV, 12.0%

Pinot Noir Rose Brut (Bin 2)

(Available by the glass)

Camel Valey, Cornwall, England, 2018, 12.5%

£58.00

100% Pinot Noir grapes. Characteristic aromas of wild strawberries and raspberries, very well balanced with a pure, refreshing finish. Mouth-wateringly good and one of Steph's favourites.

Black Queen Barossa Sparkling Shiraz (Bin 3) (Available by the glass)

Peter Lehmann, Barossa, Australia, 2015, 14.0%

£58.00

We love finding something a little different and on our visits to the Barossa we came across Sparkling Shiraz. Served chilled this Black Queen Sparkling Shiraz is a unique and indulgent wine using grapes sourced from premium vineyards in the Barossa.

Pelorus (Bin 4)

Cloudy Bay, Marlborough, New Zealand, NV, 12.5%

£65.00

Designed as an aperitif but has enough depth to stand up to many dishes. The deliciously crisp palate displays toasty, creamy complexity, enhanced by a lingering nutty finish.

Champagne Brut (Bin 5)

Laurent-Perrier, Champagne, France, NV, 12.0%

£75.00

Delicate yet complex, fresh and well-balanced with hints of citrus and white fruits. The fruit progressively emerges to reveal a finely balanced champagne displaying great length on the finish

Cuvée Rosé Brut (Bin 6)

Laurent-Perrier, Champagne, France, NV, 12.0%

£95.00

Bright, salmon-pink in colour it has hints of soft red fruits, such as strawberries, red-currants, raspberries and black cherries.

Moscato (Bin 7)

(Available by the glass)

Innocent Bystander, Yarra Valley, Australia, 2020, 5.5% £38.00

Slightly sparkling, to be drunk with light, chocolatey or fruit-based puds or just as a wicked, retro aperitif! If it was any fresher you'd slap it! say the fun-minded folks at Innocent Bystander and we're inclined to agree following our vineyard visit in 2016.

White Wines

France

Mâcon-Villages (Bin 10)

J.C. Perraud, Burgundy, 2021, 13.0%

£42.00

Encouraged by his parents at the age of 24, Jean-Christophe Perraud is a fine example of a young producer striking out on his own, with the family's vineyards, to create what will soon be one of the Mâconnais' most respected domaines. The palate is medium to full bodied, with lively citrus acidity and flavours of melon, white peach and a hint of pineapple.

Chablis (Bin 11)

Chaude Ecuelle, Burgundy, 2018, 12.5%

£48.00

The Chaude Ecuell is a family run domain and the pursuit of quality is more than ever the priority of the Vilain family. Citrus aromas of grapefruit and lemon on the nose, accompanied by mineral and floral notes. On the palate it reveals a fresh and balanced acidity.

Chablis Grand Cru 'Les Clos' (Bin 12)

Domaine de L'Enclos, Burgundy, 2018, 14.0%

£90.00

This is one of the most exciting new domaines to have emerged from Chablis in the past decade. The Grand Cru 'Les Clos' is complex with hints of minerality on the nose, the flavours on the palate are extremely concentrated with a superb balance.

Pouilly-Fuissé (Bin 13)

Château de Chaintré, Burgundy, 2018, 13.0%

£50.00

This wine is a bright gold colour in the glass with aromas of ripe, tropical fruit and notes of brioche. The palate is smooth and balanced with hints of fresh pear and lemon.

Chassagne-Montrachet 1er Cru (Bin 14)

Domaine Borgeot, Burgandy, 2018, 13.5%

£95.00

Domaine Borgeot is situated in the village of Rémigny in the Côte de Beaune and is now run by fourth generation brothers Laurent and Pascal Borgeot. This is a creamy chardonnay where smoky notes underpin the fruit and add to the structure and finish.

France (continued)

Rully (Bin 15)

(Available by the glass)

Maison de Montille, Burgandy, 2020, 13.5%

£65.00

The Rully, from a 50-year-old vineyard, is startlingly good: it has excellent depth on the palate, less oak than many from this appellation and great length of white stone fruit on the finish. This wine boasts pronounced aromas of green apple, peach skins and light cut grass scents. The palate is well balanced with a fine midpalate, nicely judged acidity and a touch of salinity on the long finish.

Sancerre (Bin 16)

Domaine Sautereau, Loire Valley, 2020, 13.5%

£48.00

In the village of Crézancy, seven kilometres west of Sancerre, the Sautereau family has been producing wine for nine generations. The winery is now being run by David Sautereau, who is producing modern, attractive wines. This wine has a pale yellow colour with an expressive and elegant nose. Aromas of citrus and gooseberry are complemented by floral and limestone notes which follow through on to the rounded palate. Medium-bodied with a crisp, saline finish.

Pouilly-Fumé (Bin 17)

Domaine Figeat, Loire Valley, 2020, 14.5%

£48.00

A fantastic example of this popular varietal from a family owned vineyard. Fresh, dry white wine with classic Sauvignon Blanc characteristics of citrus and gooseberry flavours.

Picpoul de Pinet (Bin 18)

(Available by the glass)

Domaine La Croix Gratiot, Languedoc, 2020, 13.0%

£42.00

The Picpoul is planted on soils of loam and limestone, situated near the village of Montagnac a few kilometres from the Mediterranean Sea. The proximity of the zone to the sea means cool maritime breezes moderate the climate, allowing the grapes to ripen slowly and retain good levels of acidity, resulting in fresh and vibrant wines. Bright aromas of grapefruit, lemon and white flowers on the nose. The palate has an attractive, rich texture which is well-balanced with racy acidity.

Gewurztraminer Reserve (Bin 19)

Cave de Hunawih, Haut-Rhin, Alsace, 2018, 12.5%

£38.00

The Gewurtztraminer is picked at optimum ripeness, giving the final wine layered flavours of rose petals, lychee, mango. The wine is full-bodied yet refreshing with crisp acidity, and a rose-petal perfume on the finish.

Germany

Riesling (Bin 20)

Axel Pauly, Mosel, 2017, 11.0%

£42.00

Alex Pauly is one of the dynamic young stars of German wine. The nose has fresh hay aromas along with yellow and exotic fruits. The palate is fresh and medium-bodied, with a striking mineral character and clear tropical fruit notes before the long finish.

Riesling Spätlese (Bin 21)

Donnhoff, Nahe, 2003, 8.5%

£65.00

Helmut Dönnhoff has for the past twenty years been regarded by many as the leading winemaker in Germany. Dönnhoff's Oberhäuser Brücke Riesling Spätlese is a traditional expression with luscious, layered aromas and a gorgeous balance of lush natural sweetness and a finely spirited acidity. An explosion of white peach, nectarines and slate with higher toned floral accents.

Austria

Gruner Veltliner (Bin 22)

Pichler-Krutzler Niederösterreich, 2018, 12.5%

£48.00

Gruner Veltliner, Austria's most widely cultivated varietal. Spicy and juicy, vigorous and elegant at the same time this wine develops stunningly – an absolutely Grüner Veltliner classic.

Italy

Pinot Grigio (Bin 23)

(Available by the glass)

`Terrapieno` Alpha Zeta, Veneto, 2020, 12.5%

£32.00

This is a single vineyard Pinot Grigio with great intensity and balance. It has lifted aromas of pear and bread crust, classic for Pinot Grigio from this region. The nose gives way to lovely weight and a silky texture on the palate, with hints of dried herbs. The wine finishes dry with a zesty acidity and a saline minerality on the finish.

Soave Classico (Bin 24)

Pieropan, Calvarino, Veneto, 2017, 12.5%

£45.00

The 'Calvarino' is pale straw yellow in colour, with youthful hues turning golden with age. Fresh, floral aromas with elderflower, lemon and cherry. The palate is dry, well balanced and elegant, with tremendous length and finesse.

Italy (continued)

Gavi del Comune di Gavi "Indi" (Bin 25) (Available by the glass)
Tassarolo, Piedmont, 2020, 12.5% £44.00

Cortese grapes grown in a designated zone around the town of Gavi in Piemonte are classified as Gavi del Comune di Gavi, and these vineyards produce wines of great finesse. "Indi" uses indigenous yeasts, is pale straw yellow with a straightforward fragrance of citrus and laurel. The palate is linear and slightly bitter, and the finish is saline. Crunchy acidity and lemon-lime flavors conspire to make it a direct, cleansing wine.

Spain

Rioja Blanca (Bin 26)
Izadi Larrosa, Rioja, 2020, 13.5% £40.00

Bright aromas of lemon peel, pear and honeysuckle entice on the nose. The palate has superb purity of fruit, with notes of stone fruit and zesty acidity leading to a refreshing, fruit-driven finish.

Verdejo (Bin 27)
Heredad de Penalosa, Rueda, 2021, 12.5% £42.00

Clean and bright this 100% Verdejo is full of fruit. Its aromas reveal the natural sweetness of white peach and pineapple. Characterized by the freshness of the Verdejo grape, the palate is dominated by peach, pear, and pineapple flavors. Pleasant and persistent the finish is crisp and nicely balanced.

Portugal

Redoma Branco (Bin 28)
Niepoort, Douro, 2018, 11.8% £45.00

Aromas of lime, ginger and some exotic fruits. Very subtle hints of oak lend the Redoma balance and complexity, with great freshness on the palate as well as beautiful structure supported by firm acidity. A very long, mineral and lightly saline finish provides an elegant conclusion to the wine.

Alvarinho (Bin 29) (Available by the glass)
Azevedo, Vinho Verde, 2019, 12.0% £32.00

Clear and bright yellow in colour. On the nose the wine boasts intense aromas of nectarine, apricot and mango along with floral nuances. Full flavoured and rich on the palate but balanced by a lively acidity which carries the ripe fruit flavours onto the lingering finish.

South Africa

Chardonnay (Bin 30)

(Available by the glass)

Leeu Passant, Stellenbosch, 2019, 13.5%

£85.00

This Chardonnay comes from a single vineyard planted on the higher slopes of Helderberg Mountain. Located just 4km from the ocean, the site has a pronounced maritime influence, which extends the growing season to produce fruit with incredible intensity of flavour and balancing, zesty acidity. The textured palate has notes of peaches and lemon curd, with a touch of salinity and well-integrated oak character, all balanced by acidity and mineral edge.

Viognier (Bin 31)

Fairview, Paarl, 2020, 13.5%

£34.00

Vines for this Viognier are grown on decomposed granite soils, giving the wine powerful stone fruit and honeysuckle aromas, followed by a full bodied palate with spice and lingering fruit flavours.

Chenin Blanc (Bin 32)

`Elodie`, Gabriëlskloof, Swartland, 2018, 13.0%

£60.00

The Elodie is made from old vine (over 35 years old) dry-farmed Chenin Blanc grown in the Swartland. This wine is light golden in colour with subtle aromas of apricot and white peach coupled with layers of almond, orange blossom and herbs. The palate is full-bodied with great natural acidity and freshness which is typical of old vine Chenin.

Chenin Blanc (Bin 33)

(Available by the glass)

Spice Route, Swartland, 2019, 14.0%

£40.00

Charles Back was a pioneer in the Swartland when he started Spice Route in 1998. Today, the region is the source of many of South Africa's outstanding wines. This Chenin Blanc has a classic lemon-lime character with a characteristic waxy, almost honeyed note on the palate and a lime twist on the finish.

New Zealand

Gewurtztraminer (Bin 35)

(Available by the glass)

Lovat Dry River, Martinborough, 2016, 13.5%

£60.00

A deep Gewurtztraminer with a broad and dense palate showing lush aromatics and ripe sweetness. Typical flavours of quince, ginger and florals are enhanced by a small portion of botrytised wine, adding subtlety, depth and complexity.

Sauvignon Blanc (Bin 36)

(Available by the glass)

Framingham, Marlborough, 2018, 12.5%

£36.00

This Sauvignon Blanc has smoky aromatics, with flint, bitter lemon citrus, grapefruit and tropical hints. The palate is rich, slightly chewy, with good mouthfeel, texture and harmony. Flavours of yellow citrus, currant, papaya and sweet herbs carry through the finish.

Wild Sauvignon (Bin 37)

Greywacke, Marlborough, 2018, 13.5%

£48.00

This Sauvignon Blanc from Kevin Judd is intensely complex, thanks to fermentation with wild yeasts and ageing in old French oak barriques. Aromas of summer fruit and pastry - peaches, nectarines, lime meringue pie and apple custard, all with a hint of dill and wood smoke. The palate is full with flavours of citrus and stone fruit, crisp acidity and notes of flint on the long, dry finish.

Old Vine Riesling (Bin 38)

Framingham, Marlborough, 2019, 13.0%

£45.00

A deliciously balanced "old-world" style, the nose has concentrated lime fruit with hints of honeysuckle and stony minerality. Medium to full bodied, the palate is intense with rich, balanced flavours of mandarin and ripe apple. Layered and complex, citrus fruits and wet slate perfumes continue throughout. Crisp, lively Riesling acidity carries through to the dry, long finish.

Australia

Semillon (Bin 39)

“Watervale”, Mount Horrocks, Clare Valley, 2016, 13.5% £45.00

Mount Horrocks Semillon is from a low yielding, single vineyard of unirrigated vines in Watervale. This Semillon is light white gold in colour, the nose has perfumes of garden herbs and apple over lightly toasty, spiced oak. Citrus peel and green apple, baked pear and hazelnut praline, with a creamy texture and a long, elegant dry finish.

Riesling (Bin 40)

(Available by the glass)

Polish Hill, Grosset, Clare Valley, 2019, 12.7%

£70.00

Jeffrey Grosset established his winery in 1981 in the historic township of Auburn, Clare Valley, 100 kilometres north of Adelaide. Jeff is best known for his Rieslings which have shown a consistency of style and quality, making this one of Australia’s greatest wineries. The palate has a richness and freshness only found in great wine: notes of lime blossom, pineapple and wet slate. Youthful and multi-dimensional.

Chardonnay (Bin 41)

Tolpuddle, Coal River, Tasmania, 2018, 13.0%

£72.00

Scott & Steph’s 2018 wine tour took us to Tasmania including the Coal River Valley. The Tolpuddle Vineyard was purchased by Michael Hill Smith MW and Martin Shaw in 2011, it has since established a reputation for growing exceptional quality grapes. The Chardonnay is a wine of finesse and poise, with delicate flavours of lime, green apple peel and a savoury biscuit note .

Sauvignon Blanc (Bin 42)

Shaw + Smith, Adelaide Hills, 2019, 12.5%

£42.00

The 30th vintage of this wine that has become known as the benchmark for Australian Sauvignon Blanc. The style has remained fresh, aromatic, and pure with distinct pink grapefruit flavour profile, mid-palate weight and texture and a fine acidity.

Riesling (Bin 43)

Peggy’s Hill, Henschke, Eden Valley, 2021, 12.0%

£44.00

‘Peggy’s Hill’ Riesling takes its name from a local landmark at the top of the range between the villages of Eden Valley and Keyneton. Pale lemon with lime-green hues. Fragrant aromas of lemon and lime zest, white peach and citrus blossom, with hints of ginger, lemon balm and white rose. The palate is concentrated and pure with flavours of tangerine, grilled lemon and crisp green apple, framed by fine minerality giving shape and focus, excellent balance and a long finish.

USA

Chenin Blanc/Viognier (Bin 44)

Pine Ridge, Clarksburg, California, 2020, 12.0% £42.00

Crisp, bright and lively, this wine boasts a bouquet of pink grapefruit, orange blossom, honeysuckle, and jasmine. On the palate, there are ripe fruit flavours of tangerine, green apple, white peach and lime curd alongside more herbal notes of lemongrass and ginger. It is medium-bodied, with refreshing acidity and a hint of minerality on the long, round finish.

Uruguay

Albariño (Bin 47)

Bodega Garzón Reserve, Maldonado, 2020, 13.5% £40.00

Bodega Garzón is a family-owned winery, in November 2018, their pioneering status was recognised with the 'New World Winery of the Year' award. Intense aromas of peach and citrus. The freshness and minerality on the palate is superb, supported by a remarkable acidity with a juicy fruit on the crisp finish.

Rose Wines

South Africa

Syrah, Viognier Rosebud (Bin 50)

(Available by the glass)

Gabriëlskloof, Bot River, 2020, 12.5%

£32.00

Australia

Moscato (Bin 7)

(Available by the glass)

Innocent Bystander, Yarra Valley, Australia, 2020, 5.5%

£35.00

Slightly sparkling, to be drunk with light, chocolatey or fruit-based puds or just as a wicked, retro aperitif! If it was any fresher you'd slap it!' say the fun-minded folks at Innocent Bystander and we're very inclined to agree following our vineyard visit in 2016.

Red Wines

France

Gamay (Bin 60)

(Available by the glass)

Domaine Joel Delaunay, Loire, 2020, 12.5%

£30.00

Ruby red in colour, this supple Gamay is dominated by ripe cherries, plums and floral notes. It has a soft texture on the palate and a spicy finish.

Saint-Emilion (Grand Cru) (Bin 61)

Fleur de Lisse, Bordeaux, 2016, 14.5%

£70.00

The wine shows notes of vibrant red berries, blackberry fruit and liquorice spice, underpinned by elegant, fine-grained tannins and a lingering, fresh finish. Château Fleur de Lisse is located in Saint-Étienne-de-Lisse in Saint-Émilion. The Château was acquired in 2015 by the Teycheney family, who have a particular interest in biodynamic farming.

Haut-Médoc (Bin 62)

Château Larose Trintaudon, Bordeaux, 2014, 13.5%

£52.00

A racy, incredibly full-bodied and well-structured wine with enormous density and power. Infinite length on the palate with excellent balance between fruit, tannins and acidity. Situated on the borders of the Pauillac and Saint-Julien Appellations, it benefits from very similar growing conditions as its neighbour Château Latour.

Beaujolais-Villages (Bin 63)

Jean-Marc Burgaud, Beaujolais, 2020, 12.5%

£45.00

100% Gamay Noir. An attractive deep ruby in the glass, the nose boasts bright aromas of crunchy red fruits and violets. On the palate, the wine has a superb structure, with grainy tannins, concentrated red fruit flavours and excellent acidity lifting the finish.

Fleurie (Bin 64)

Dominique Morel, Beaujolais, 2019, 13.0%

£45.00

This family-run winery based just north of Fleurie dates back to the early 1900s and has been run by current Winemaker Dominique Morel since 1967. This wine has fragrant violet and red fruit aromas on the nose and a palate bursting with bright fruit and supple tannins. It is an elegant wine with a long, persistent finish

Brouilly (Bin 65)

Château de Pierreux, Beaujolais, 2018, 13.5%

£44.00

It is one of the finest domaines in the Beaujolais region, with a magnificent château and winery built during the Renaissance. This wine is very aromatic, full of morello cherries, blackcurrants and sweet spices. The palate is complex, revealing flavours of wild strawberry and violet with medium body and soft tannins.

France (continued)

Châteauneuf-Du-Pape (Bin 66)

Chateau De Vaudieu, Rhône, 2019, 15.0%

£64.00

A blend of 58% Grenache, 25% Syrah, 11% Mourvèdre and 6% Cinsault. Aged in used oak for 12 months, adding power and complexity to the finished wine, which boasts flavours of ripe red and black fruits, sweet spice and hints of liquorice.

Côtes Du Rhône (Bin 67)

Domaine Charvin, Rhône, 2015, 14.0%

£45.00

Barrel-aged red wine made with the Monastrell, Garnacha and Cariñena red varieties in the AOC Côtes du Rhône. A juicy wine with delicious aromas of fresh red fruit and spicy touches. On the palate it is fresh, light and easy to drink. It has dense fruits, lovely tannins and balanced acidity.

Gevrey-Chambertin (Bin 68)

Jane Eyre, Burgundy, 2020, 13.5%

£98.00

Jane Eyre is originally from Melbourne. Formerly a hairdresser in one of the city's top salons, Jane "fell in love" with Burgundy while doing work experience at Domaine Chevrot in 1998. Back in Australia, she studied winemaking at Charles Sturt University and worked vintages at Cullen in the Margaret River, and Felton Road and Ata Rangī in New Zealand. She returned to Europe in 2003.

Jane's Gevrey-Chambertin is an impressive expression of this prime Cru in the Côte de Nuits. The nose has cherry aromas, wild savoury characters with some trademark earthy Gevrey notes. The wine is well-balanced and accessible with lovely dark cherry and raspberry fruit on the palate, fine grained tannins and a lasting finish.

Nuits-Saint-Georges (Bin 70)

(Available by the glass)

Jean-Claude Boisset, Burgundy, 2016, 12.5%

£88.00

Making wines from 'lieu-dits' or tiny plots of vines, is something which accounts for the limited production. This wine comes from the single site 'Coteau des Bois' vineyard. A bright ruby coloured Pinot Noir in the glass with aromas of crunchy red cherry, sweet spice and subtle smoky notes. On the palate the flavours are well concentrated, with silky tannins and bright acidity giving the wine great structure and length.

Aloxe-Corton 1er Cru (Bin 71)

Domaine Tollot-Beaut, Burgundy, 2017, 12.5%

£90.00

The fifth generation of the family now produces this 100% Pinot Noir from hand harvested grapes of the 'Les Fournières' vineyard. This wine has expressive aromas of wild strawberry and blackberry fruit. On the palate, it displays firm, ripe tannins, bright notes of black fruit with a touch of clove spice lifted by fresh acidity. The finish is long and layered.

Italy

Dolcetto D'Alba (Bin 72)

D.J. Vajra, Piedmont, 2020, 12.5%

£44.00

This Dolcetto d'Alba is a vibrant deep purple in colour. The nose opens with notes of wild berries and mulberry, with hints of white pepper, sweet spices and fresh thyme. The palate is bursting with blueberries and fresh plums, with a refreshing acidity that makes it a great accompaniment to food. The finish is elegant with a lovely almond note.

Amarone (Bin 73)

(Available by the glass)

Corte Giara, Valpolicella, 2018, 15.0%

£68.00

The name Valpolicella means "Valley of Many Cellars" because there are so many in the region which is situated North West of Verona. This wine is intensely perfumed with an inviting ruby red colour. The characteristic hints of black cherry and freshly ground black pepper are followed by subtle herb on the nose. Dry and well-balanced.

Spain

Rioja Reserva (Bin 74)

Izadi, Rioja, 2017, 14.0%

£44.00

A contemporary Rioja that combines the dark fruit flavours of the Tempranillo grape with the spicy oak that marks out the best Rioja. A fresh and fragrant nose, boasting aromas of redcurrant, cherry and plum with notes of tobacco, liquorice and earthy undertones. The palate is pure and concentrated with a long, fruit-forward finish.

Ribera del Duero (Bin 75)

Finca Villacreces, Castilla y León, 2016, 14.0%

£55.00

86% Tempranillo, 10% Cabernet, 4% Malbec

This wine is inky purple in colour with an expressive bouquet of espresso, toasted bread, graphite, wild blueberries, and blackberry liqueur. This is followed by a full-bodied, full-flavoured, plush wine with layers of spicy black fruit. Well balanced, with lingering hints of smoke.

Portugal

Touriga Franca, Touriga Nacional (Bin 77)

Casa Ferreirinha, Douro, 2018, 13.5%

£48.00

This wine is deep ruby in colour with an intense and complex nose of ripe red and black fruits with floral nuances and hints of tobacco and spice. On the palate, it has a lively acidity, firm but velvety tannins and a lovely spiciness on the long and harmonious finish.

Touriga Nacional (Bin 78)

Quinta dos Carvalhais, Dao, 2017, 13.5%

£52.00

100% Touriga Nacional, it showcases the signature black fruit and violet characters of this prized indigenous variety alongside a well-integrated spiciness from 12 months in French oak. Ruby-red in colour with intense aromas of ripe black fruit, with floral and herbal notes and a subtle spiciness from the time in barrel. Elegant and balanced, with smooth tannins providing structure.

South Africa

Cinsault (Bin 79)

Leeu Passant, Wellington, 2017, 13.5%

£90.00

This historic vineyard was planted in 1900 on the deep, sandy, alluvial soils in Wellington. 100% whole bunch fermented, which gives the wines lifted aromas and tannins that drive the fruit through the palate. They are, quite simply, masterpieces. This aromatic wine has an alluring and complex nose which opens with notes of roses, cranberries, cherries, spice and a hint of thyme. The palate is fresh and silky in texture, with notes of orange peel, rhubarb, maraschino cherries, pink peppercorns and cloves. Fine tannins give great structure and an enticing mouthfeel to the wine.

Grenache (Bin 80)

(Available by the glass)

Momento, Western Cape, 2019, 13.5%

£50.00

Born out of a passion for Mediterranean varieties and old-vine fruit, Momento is a solo project from dynamic winemaker Marelise Niemann. Juicy yet refined, the palate reveals crunchy red berry fruit, bracing acidity and a satisfying grip which lends structure and complexity. The finish is saline and moreish.

South Africa (continued)

Syrah (Bin 81)

Mollineux, Swartland, 2017, 14.5%

£48.00

Founded by Chris and Andrea Mullineux in 2007, this winery is now one of the most lauded in South Africa. Named 'Winery of the Year' four times. The wine is aged in oak, 15% of which is new, for 14 months prior to bottling. This aromatic Syrah has notes of spicy citrus zest, black fruit, and violets, which follow through on the palate. The wine is elegant and restrained yet has good body and a silky texture balanced by a fresh, natural acidity. The finish is long with supple, dusty tannins.

Cabernet Sauvignon (Bin 82)

(Available by the glass)

Robertson, Breede River Valley, 2019, 14.0%

£30.00

This Cabernet Sauvignon displays ripe blackcurrant and dried herb characters on the nose, which are backed up with spicy notes from the oak ageing. The palate is smooth and soft, with beautiful ripe tannins and a long finish.

New Zealand

Pinot Noir (Bin 84)

Wild Earth, Central Otago, 2019, 13.5%

£46.00

Our NZ tour in 2011 took us to Central Otago and Felton Road in Bannockburn. Surrounded by hill this is one of the South Islands finest wine regions. This wine is deep garnet in colour with intense aromas of cherry, blackberry, cedar, wild thyme, mushroom and earthy loam. The palate is well-structured with great intensity and length, silky tannins and enticing layers of vibrant fruit.

Syrah (Bin 85)

Dry River 'Lovat', Martinburgh, 2016, 13.5%

£88.00

Pioneers in the Martinborough region, Dry River was founded in 1979 in one of the best areas for producing quality grapes on New Zealand's North Island. Managed by a team of seven people with a passion for winemaking, they produce very personal wines that faithfully reflect the terroir.

2016 was an outstanding vintage, no less for Syrah. After a moderately cool and very dry summer, the long autumn helped with the late slow ripening. Characters like cherries, fresh blackcurrants, violets and Christmas spices. It cries ripe characters of black liquorice, dark boysenberries and crème de cassis.

New Zealand (continued)

Syrah (Bin 86)

Elephant Hill, Gimblett Gravels & Te Awanga

Hawke's Bay, 2016, 13.5%

£50.00

Back in 2011 we celebrated Steph's birthday with lunch and a vineyard tour of the stunning Elephant Hill estate. Stunning architecture, great food and world class wine! The 2016 release came after a long cool vintage allowing the grape a gentle ripening period. Pressed and aged in French Oak for 22 months this syrah demonstrates blackberry, raspberry, spice, pepper and earth flavours with a structured and soft finish. An excellent wine for lamb, beef or venison dishes.

Australia

Pinot Noir (Bin 87)

(Available by the glass)

Innocent Bystander, Yarra Valley, 2019, 13.5%

£44.00

Innocent Bystander Pinot Noir was one of our favourites when we visited the Yarra back in 2016. Aromas of cherries, Campari, raspberries, fennel seeds with hints of bergamot tea and orange zest. Lively on the palate with fresh, ripe raspberries with a beetroot earthiness. A wine of purity, texture and slippery tannins.

Shiraz (Bin 88)

(Available by the glass)

Stonewell, Peter Lehmann, Barossa, 2013, 14.5%

£80.00

It is fair to say that we love the "Barossa" having visited in both 2016 and 2019. The region produces a variety of grapes but is best known for Barossa Shiraz of which the wines from Peter Lehmann are amongst the best available.

Stonewell Shiraz, first made in 1987, has one guiding principle: to be Peter Lehmann's best Shiraz of vintage. The name Stonewell was chosen in recognition of the high quality Shiraz grapes being grown around Stonewell Road.

Shiraz/ Viognier (Bin 89)

(Available by the glass)

Willunga 100, McLaren Vale, 2018, 14.5%

£40.00

A classic blend of Shiraz (95%) with a touch of Viognier (5%) to add perfume. It has a full and rich palate typical of McLaren Vale. The Shiraz offers dark plum, liquorice and spice while the touch of Viognier brings a vibrant and fragrant lift to the nose. Fine grained tannins give a savoury edge.

Australia (continued)

Grenache (Bin 90)

The Tithing, Willunga 100, McLaren Vale, 2009, 14.5% £50.00

The Tithing from Willunga 100 is made only in the best vintages, from small parcels of premium bush vine grapes. "Hundred" and "Tithing" are derived from the Anglo-Saxon terms for units of government within a community. Just as the Tithing was the select part of the Hundred, this wine represents the small selection of the finest old bush vine Grenache, that is hand-picked to ensure exceptional quality. This 'old vine' Grenache has concentrated dark cherry aromas with powerful savoury overtones. It has a long fruit-driven palate with ripe, persistent tannins.

GSM - Grenache Shiraz Mataro (Bin 91)

Powell & Sons, Barossa, 2018, 15.0% £76.00

Driven by the 1901-planted Grenache from Seppeltsfield that makes up 60% of the blend. matured for 15 months in 2500 litre French oak foudres. Impenetrable black dark red colour with a dark red hue. Aromas of dark raspberries, black cherries and liquorice have a leathery barnyard overlay with scorched earth, dried meats and spicy cedar following on. Full in body, rich flavours of dark to black raspberries and liquorice are infused with earthy leather and dried meat characters. Finishes spicy with some lively acidity.

Shiraz Blend (Bin 92)

(Available by the glass)

Henschke Henry's Seven, Barossa, 2016, 14.5% £65.00

73% Syrah/Shiraz , 17% Grenache/Garnacha, 5% Mataro, 5% Viognier

This blend is a tribute to Henry Evans, who planted the first vineyard of seven acres at Keyneton in 1853. Dark plum, berry compote, rhubarb and raspberry flavours lead to a peppery mid-palate of vibrant red berry acidity and fine-grained tannins, finishing with lingering flavours of mulberry and black pepper.

Pinot Noir(Bin 93)

Tolpuddle, Tasmania, 2020, 13.0% £88.00

When we visited Tasmania in 2018 we were blown away by the quality of wines in the Coal River Valley. The goal of the current owners, Martin Shaw & Michael Smith, is to make this one of the finest single vineyards in Australia for Chardonnay and Pinot Noir. This wine has gorgeous aromatics with violets and red berries coming to the fore. There is abundant fruit with notes of sour cherry, raspberry, blueberry, and a touch of rhubarb. Underlying savoury characters include graphite and cured meat, and some toasted spices.

USA

Zinfandel (Bin 94)

Seghesio, Sonoma County, 2019, 14.5%

£48.00

For over a century, the Seghesio family has played an integral role in the history and evolution of viticulture in the region. The Sonoma Zinfandel is made from carefully selected vineyards across Dry Creek Valley, Alexander Valley and Mendocino county. It displays purity, balance and freshness. A juicy, vibrant entry with notes of mint and fresh plum is interwoven with supple, textured tannins and acidity on the long, complex finish.

Petit Syrah (Bin 95)

Fog Monster, Napa Valley, 2016, 13.5%

£74.00

A chance encounter with an incredible site led to an exciting project in California for two of South Africa's most-acclaimed winemakers, Andrea and Chris Mullineux. Once they saw the vineyard – "How could we say no!". Fog Monster was established in 2012 and, since then, Andrea and Chris have continued to make single vineyard wines from parcels that excite and intrigue them. This wine has an intense youthful colour, typical of Petite Sirah, and a nose packed with plums, blackberries and spice. The full, textured palate has grip and a vibrant, fresh and satisfyingly dry finish. Powerful but truly balanced!

Argentina

Cabernet Sauvignon (Bin 96)

Kaiken Reserve, Mendoza, 2017, 13.0%

£36.00

This Cabernet Sauvignon is deep ruby in colour. Fresh red fruits intermingle with aromas of tobacco and spices. On the palate, the wine is soft and vibrant. The long, captivating finish has great complexity and spicy notes, typical of the variety.

Malbec (Bin 97)

(Available by the glass)

Finca Flichman Caballero, Mendoza, 2019, 13.5%

£32.00

This wine is ruby red in colour with blue hues. The aroma is perfumed and complex, on the palate, it is concentrated with blackberries, ripe plums and tobacco leaves. Sweet, ripe tannins balance the fruit.

Chile

Merlot (Bin 98)

(Available by the glass)

Montes Classic Series, Colchagua Valley, 2019, 14.5% £36.00

Montes was established in 1988, with the aim of producing the best wines in Chile from the best regions. Chosen to produce the best examples of each variety, this Chilean Merlot is ripe, full, plummy, layered and full flavoured.

Dessert Wines

Sauvignon Blanc

75ml

Late Harvest Tardío, Maipo Valley, Chile, 2017, 13.0%

£8.00

This wine is made from botrytis affected grapes lovingly aged in oak barrels for 11 months. A deep golden colour, with aromas of honey, dried flowers and sweet spice, the palate has a wonderful marmalade character and an elegant fresh acidity which balances with the richness of the wine. Great all rounder

Signature Straw Wine Chenin Blanc

75ml

Mullineux, Swartland, South Africa, 2020, 7.0%

£14.50

Straw Wine is one of the great sweet wines of the world. Harvested at normal ripeness levels and air-dried for three to four weeks, concentrating the sugars, flavours and, most importantly, acidity. Fermented in old barrels for six to nine months before natural settling and bottling. The resulting wine has an incredibly intense nose of dried fruit, marmalade, marzipan and honey. On the palate, it is powerful and intense, with around 360 grams per litre residual sugar, but this is balanced by a vibrant acidity that leaves the wine tasting fresh and dry.

A truly exceptional wine this is dessert in a glass.

Black Muscat

75ml

Elysium, Quady, California, 2017, 15.0%

£8.50

An amazing sweet and rich RED wine, this has a floral aroma and great concentration. It offers layers of flavor like dried fruit, honey and boysenberry syrup, with food acidity for balance. Great with red fruits or dark chocolate

Riesling 'Cordon Cut'

75ml

Mount Horrocks, Clare Valley, Australia, 2020, 12.0%

£12.50

Mount Horrocks is owned by winemaker Stephanie Toole, who restricts production to achieve her aims of quality and single-vineyard expression. 'Cordon Cut' refers to a complex, highly risky process requiring both skill and experience, which involves cutting the vine canes when the grapes are ripe, allowing the remaining fruit to concentrate and raisin naturally on the vine. Ripe, juicy citrus fruits, cumquat and mandarin, vanillin spice wrapped in a luscious richness rounded by astute refreshing acidity. Crisp, long on flavour, pleasing to finish.

A great ballanced wine perfect with light desserts.

Yuzu Sake

75ml

Keigetsu, Kōchi Prefecture, Japan, 8.0%

£8.00

Forget any pre-conceptions you have about sake!

This mouth-puckering yet sweet sake is made with the zesty & citrus yuzu fruit. It has an intense mix of lemon, tangerine and lime aromas with a fragrant lift, and a balanced sweetness. Perfect with fresh fruits or citrus

Dessert Wines (continued)

Recioto della Valpolicella

75ml

Corte Giara, Veneto, Italy, 2020, 5.5%

£8.50

Ruby red in colour, this Recioto has an intensely aromatic nose, which is bursting with red fruits and herbs. On the palate, it is succulent and beautifully balanced. The elegant, crisp acidity complements the sweetness giving a long, satisfying finish. A great alternative to port, perfect with cheese or dark chocolate.

Moscato

125ml

Innocent Bystander, Yarra, Australia, 2020, 5.5%

£7.00

Slightly sparkling, to be drunk with light, chocolatey or fruit-based puds or just as a wicked, retro aperitif! If it was any fresher you'd slap it!' say the fun-minded folks at Innocent Bystander and we're inclined to agree following our vineyard visit in 2016. Summer berries or light desserts

Port

Kopke - The oldest Port wine house

Kopke existed even before there was a demarcated region of the Douro. Established in 1638, the oldest Port wine house built an impeccable reputation based on the highest quality. A leader in the production of Port Tawny Colheita wines, including white port, Kopke has a remarkable range of special category Ports, also producing excellent DOC Douro wines.

20 Year Old Tawny Port

Kopke,

Douro, 20.0%

Glass

50ml

£8.00

A delicate orange-green colour. Its splendid nose is a complex marriage of dried fruit, spice and notes of fine wood. On the palate, its flavours are rich and concentrated, with a long and velvety finish.

2015 Late Bottled Vintage Port

Kopke,

Douro, 20.5%

£9.00

Kopke Vintage Port Wines are made from hand-picked grapes in a harvest year of an exceptional quality. They age in barrels for a maximum period of two and a half years and are bottled afterwards. Deep dark-purple colour with a vibrant and intense ruby rim. Aromas of ripe wild berries on the nose, combined with notes of violet, black pepper and hints of eucalyptus leaf. In the mouth the firm tannins stand out, together with a vibrant and crisp acidity.

30 Year Old Tawny Port

Kopke,

Douro, 20.0%

£12.00

Amber in colour, with green hues. An intense and complex nose, with prevailing aromas of dried fruit well-balanced with notes of vanilla and honey. On the palate, it is harmonious and concentrated. A superb and enduring finish.

2008 Colheita White Port

Kopke,

Douro, 19.5%

£10.00

A wine of high quality, made from one single harvest. A Colheita wine matures in oak barrels for periods of time that can vary, but never less than 7 years. With a golden colour, this wine reveals delicate honeyed aromas, with hints of candied orange peel, vanilla and dried apricot. A charming wine in the mouth, blending refined aromas of fruit and cask ageing, making this an enticing and intense wine. An elegant and seductive finish, with refreshing acidity that lingers. Served Chilled

Sherry

Fino

50ml

Sandeman

Jerez, Spain, NV, 15.0%

£4.00

The House of Sandeman was founded in London in 1790 by George Sandeman, a young Scot from Perth, specialising in wines from Porto and Jerez.

On the nose, there is a bright, aromatic and pungent aroma reflecting the influence of flor yeast – a lightly saline character with notes of bread dough, almonds, olives and dried apples. The wine is dry and fresh on the palate, with a crisp and persistently savoury finish.

Armada Cream

Sandeman

Jerez, Spain, NV, 17.5%

£4.00

Medium dry with a deep mahogany colour. Complex Oloroso characters of roasted almonds, sweet spices and dried fruits are enriched by coffee and treacle flavours from the addition of PX. The final wine is full-bodied, layered and well balanced with a very smooth and velvety finish.

Pedro Ximenez

Triana, Bodegas Hidalgo

Jerez, Spain, 15.0%

£4.50

Sherry but possibly not as you know it!

One of the sweetest wines in the world, PX is about as sweet as things can get. Aromas of raisins, molasses, figs, toffee, caramel, nuts, the palate is incredibly thick, dense, with an oily texture, massive concentration and unsurpassed sweetness and prolonged length

Vermouth

Valentian Vermouth

50ml

Tait Bros

Melrose, Scotland, 16.0%

£4.50

Valentian Vermouth's unique flavour is the product of marrying two great flavours and traditions. The Tait brothers dared to pair a crisp Italian white wine with a distinctive Scottish new-make malt spirit. Valentian Rosso is a rich yet delicate vermouth with aromas of bergamot, red summer fruits and malt barley on the nose, lightly candied orchard fruits and gently herbaceous on the palate - a beautiful balance of bitter and sweet.
